HON. J. W. YERKES, Republican candidate for Governor, will open his campaign at Bowling Green on Sept. 3d.

Gov. Roosevelt has decided to visit Kentucky during his speech-making tour this fall.

Mr. Yerkes' challenge for a joint debate with Gov. Beckham will probably be answered this week.

In November 75,000 drummers who lost their jobs as a result of the trusts will march up to the polls and vote for Bryan.

The shirt waist man has one advantage over his coated brethren. His strong right arm will not show up as plainly as a coat sleeve around the shirt waist girl.

THE Hon. Thos. B. Reed is painfully quiet whenever McKinley's name is mentioned. Tom could make a mighty interesting speech if he would "loosen up" his tongue.

For the benefit of the superstitious the Georgetown Times notes the fact that the hearing of the evidence in the Caleb Powers case began on July 13th and ended on August 13th. This thirteen will prove unlucky for Powers.

SHORT NEWS STORIES.

Brief Paragraphs About Important Happenings.

The thirty-fifth annual Convention of the Kentucky Sunday School Association will be held at Bowling Green on the 28, 29 and 30.

A heavily framed picture of Bryan saved Frank Swan from drowning at Seneca Falls, N. Y.

At Chicago Tuesday a steer objected to a red shirt waist worn by Fred Harkness and chased him over a high fence at the stock yards.

Extra Session Called.

At noon Wednesday Gov. Beckham issued a call for an extra session of the Kentucky Legislature to meet on Tuesday, August 28th, to modify or amend the Goebel Election Law. The proclamation reads as follows:

"In accordance with section 80, of the Constitution, I, J. C. W. Beckham, Governor of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, do hereby call the General Assembly of the Commonwealth to convene in the city of Frankfort on Tuesday, August 28, 1900.

I regard the occasion for the call as extraordinary, and I designate as the subject to be considered by the General Assembly when it shall meet on the date aforesaid the modification or amendment of the existing laws regulating elections in this State.

In testimony whereof I have caused these letters to be made patent and the seal of the Commonwealth to be hereunto affixed.

Done at Frankfort, the 15th day of August, 1900, and in the 109th year of the Commonwealth.

J. C. W. BECKHAM.

By the Governor:

C. B. HILL, Secretary of State.

As only one subject is mentioned in the proclamation the session will be confined solely to that subject and the session will be a short one.

There are many reasons why you should buy your HOUSE FURNISHING Goods of me.

A FEW OF THESE:

I buy for spot cash. I buy the best. I buy cheaper than others because I buy in quantities.

You do not have to help me pay rent, and above all, I give you close prices. This is not idle talk, but is common sense, and your common sense will tell you it is the truth.

You are privileged to buy where you please, but you can best serve your own interests by examining my prices before you make any purchases.

And one more little item of interest to you will be that I have no second-hand furniture—none that has been taken away from anybody.

Undertaking in all its branches. Embalming scientifically attended to. Carriages for hire.

Furniture repaired. Household goods moved. WOOD MANTELS and TILINGS always on hand.

I can furnish you at any time an experienced man for work.
